Presented by Dr. Jacob Glickman, Psy.D., MA, LPC

Jacob Glickman, PsyD, MA, LPC (he/him) is a clinical psychologist, licensed professional counselor, sexologist, and feminist researcher. He specializes in providing mental healthcare for people who identify as transgender/non-binary/gender expansive, as well as the larger LGBTQIA+ communities and their families. He has previously conducted research into the power of role-playing games (RPGs) as a clinical tool for marginalized communities, and his current work focuses on creating a better understanding of factors that inform prejudiced/transphobic beliefs with the overall aim of dismantling them. Dr. Glickman currently serves at the clinical director for the Therapy Center of Philadelphia, a nonprofit, community mental health center.

Learning Objectives:

- Participants will apply Intergroup Threat Theory to enhance their current understanding of clients' prejudice.
- Participants will demonstrate the ability to navigate instances of prejudice and discrimination in clinical settings.
- Participants will identify one way in which they can create a more inclusive clinical practice.

Please contact PAGPSGROUP@gmail.com with any questions.

Sign in will begin at 8:30AM, welcome and introductions at 8:45AM. Because we are issuing CEs, you must be present for the full two hours with your video feed on, beginning promptly at 9:00AM. There will be a 10-minute break in the middle of the CE event and a 5-minute break following the CE event before the annual meeting begins.

ABOUT PAGPS CONTINUING EDUCATION

PAGPS offerings are designed for mental health professionals and deal with topics that are usually underrepresented in graduate training programs and/or that provide additional, advanced, and newly emerging perspectives on group therapy theory, research, and practice. This program is intended for mental health professionals at a post-graduate level. This program, when attended in its entirety, is available for 2 continuing education credits. The Philadelphia Area Group Psychotherapy Society (PAGPS) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. PAGPS maintains responsibility for this program and its content. PAGPS is also approved by the PA State Board of Social Workers, Marriage & Family Therapists & Professional Counselors to offer continuing education for social workers, marriage & family therapists, and professional counselors.

Attendees can also receive 2 credits toward re-certification for the National Registry of Certified Group Psychotherapists (CGP). PAGPS is committed to accessibility and non-discrimination in its continuing education activities and will conduct its activities in conformity with the American Psychological Association's Ethical Principles for Psychologists. To arrange accommodations for special needs, please contact us at pagpsgroup@gmail.com.

There is no commercial support for this program nor are there any relationships between the CE sponsor, presenting organizations, presenter, program content, research, grants, or other funding that could reasonably be construed as conflicts of interest.

The Philadelphia Area Group Psychotherapy Society (pagps.org), an affiliate of the American Group Psychotherapy Association (<http://www.agpa.org>), provides a forum for the exchange of ideas, theories, studies, research, information, and experience in group psychotherapy. Members come from all over the Philadelphia region, including the city of Philadelphia as well as surrounding areas in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. Members may list their groups on the PAGPS website. For more information about joining PAGPS or renewing your membership, please visit our website at www.pagps.org, or e-mail us at pagpsgroup@gmail.com.
